From the Principal

Dear Parents,

Our Christmas concert will be held on Tuesday 16th of December. We will be using the Hobsons Bay stage again this year and will be asking for some help mid–morning with its set up. Please leave your name at the office if you are happy to lend a hand. The concert will commence at 6:00pm with children in Preps to grade 2 performing before a half hour interval at 7:00pm. Children in grades 3–6 will be on stage from 7:30pm – 8:30pm. We will draw the winners of the children’s Christmas stocking during the night. Children can pre-purchase raffle tickets to win one of three Christmas stocking prizes. Grade 6 leaders will be selling the raffle tickets to Seabrook students only during recess and lunchtimes. Tickets will also be available on the night. For families new to the school we invite you to bring picnic chairs and a picnic basket meal. A limited number of food and drink items will be on sale at the school prior to the performance. Let’s hope for good weather on the 16th of December.

GRADE 5 CAMP

The Sovereign Hill camp last week was a great success with happy, knowledgeable children returning on Friday. The range and quality of the activities helped the children gain valuable insights into the historical and cultural details of Victoria’s history around 1850. Some children even returned a little richer finding specks of gold during the gold panning activity. Thanks to the staff and parent for organizing and supporting the children’s wonderful learning experience.

KINDER SCHOOL TRANSITION

Friday will be the last day our preps for 2015 join us in the classroom as part of their transition program. The children have responded well to some of the routines in preparation for their first year at school. Thanks to all who supported this transition program.

ELECTION DAY BBQ

We are still looking for helpers for our Election Day bbq. Please let us know if you available anytime on the day. We hope to make a profit from selling food items to put towards our campaign saving enough money to purchase shade sails for our adventure playground.

BOOKLISTS

There is still time to return your order slip for your child’s books for 2015. Parents have the option to pay this year if they wish. Collection day is Thursday 22nd of January between 8:30am - 6pm.

Sue & Staff

All editions of our newsletters from now on will have the students First name and their initial of their surname, this is to provide personal security on the web.
Grade 4HT are currently taking an exploration into their final Transdisciplinary inquiry theme: Sharing the Planet. They have been able to make some strong connections to the central idea: Living things need to adapt in order to survive. For them to show their understanding to the central idea and the big concepts: Connection-How are we connected?; Change-How is it changing?; the students applied research and note taking skills to find out about an endangered or vulnerable animal or plant. Upon finding out about this new information, they focused on ‘persuading’ their audience by presenting a ‘Protest Banner’. Through the process of writing, the students gained a wealth of knowledge into how particular language features and the structure of a protest banner can be used as a tool to persuade. Here are just some of their masterpieces-enjoy!

Nouha
I was proud of myself because I could make a protest banner with my partner and by using bold letters.

Ayla
I am most proud because I learnt how to create a banner & what a banner is for.

Summer
I now know that banners can be useful because they try to persuade people to save a place or animal.

Hayley
I was challenged when I was thinking of all the reasons for pollution.

Tiarna
I learnt that in a protest banner there has to be a ‘catchy’ phrase & photos/pictures that will engage people.

Monique
Today, I found out that a protest banner has to be short, snappy & engaging.

Hannah
Next time, I could make words in darker so people can see it clearly.

Nithika
Next time, I could write key words around the picture so my audience will mostly know what the banner is protesting about.
Karim
Next time, I will check my spelling because I spelt a word wrong.

Kayden
I needed some help from the teacher to find a good picture to stop people from killing whales.

Zi
I learnt how to make a protest banner by including 'big' writing that sends out a powerful message.

Ethan
I know that protest banners need to be catchy. I found out why people protest on the internet & teacher help.

Louis
I showed cooperation by working with my partner finding out the reasons why people protest.

Demitrious
I found out that protest banners are used for sending out messages to the public.

Tylar
I learnt how to make a protest banner by including 'big' writing that sends out a powerful message.

Participating families in the 2015 MacBook 1:1 program should now be finalising payments at the office. MacBooks should be fully paid for by the end of November, 2014. As mentioned throughout the year, the previously released price estimates may fluctuate slightly due to many factors, including the change in the Australian dollar. A final "locked in" price was issued a few weeks back in preparation for the bulk purchase of MacBooks, which was November 3. MacBooks can still be ordered this year, and at the beginning of 2015. Please note that although prices don’t change often, if they do then these will be reflected within the purchase price. Please confirm with Yvonne your final payment amount.

REMINDER ALSO:
Bring Your Own Devices (BYOD) or machines purchased privately outside the school will NOT be accepted at this stage. We review our ICT policies annually, and this may change in coming years. Our decision for 2015 is to NOT accept BYOD or privately purchased devices.

Machines "originally purchased" by the school, and if approved "prior" to 2015, may be able to be extended past the original three year lease term. Please note however, ongoing annual fees will be required in order to use older "pre-purchased school MacBooks" within the school, which includes extended insurance, software and VPP APP licensing extensions.

Any questions please don’t hesitate to contact the school.

Changes to the Education Maintenance Allowance (EMA) Program

What is changing?
In the 2013 School Funding Reform Agreement, signed with the Commonwealth, the Victorian Government committed an additional $5.4 billion school funding to change the way it helps low income families with education expenses. From 1 January 2015, the Government will support the learning needs of students from disadvantaged backgrounds by providing $34.5 million directly to Government schools.

Why is the EMA changing?
In 2013, the Victorian Government signed a $12.2 billion agreement for additional funding for schools in Victoria. This involves a $5.4 billion contribution from the Victorian Government over six years. The Government was able to secure this additional funding without subjecting Victoria to significant intervention by the Commonwealth, achieving an enormously favourable outcome for Victorian families. In order to access Commonwealth funding, Victoria was obliged to shift as much education funding as possible into direct payments to schools. Had the Government failed to adhere to this condition, the entire additional funding agreed to by the Commonwealth would have been at risk for Victoria. By making this change, and redirecting EMA payments from parents direct to schools, Victoria was able to secure this record increase in education funding which will benefit all students, and in particular those from disadvantaged backgrounds.

More information about the School Funding Reform Agreement can be found at:
http://www.education.vic.gov.au/about/department/vlc/Pages/default.aspx (the link goes to TVLC)

When will the EMA program change?
From 1 January 2015, funding to support students from disadvantaged backgrounds will be distributed directly to schools, targeted through the Student Family Occupation (SFO) index. Funding will be provided to schools with the greatest densities of students from low socio-economic backgrounds, recognising their additional learning needs.

What funding for low income students will replace the EMA?
The Victorian Government will continue to support students from low-income families by distributing $34.5 million directly to the neediest government schools, in place of the EMA payment. This equity funding for government schools will be allocated according to Victoria’s existing needs based funding model, the Student Resource Package (SRP). The funding will be provided directly to schools via the SRP, targeted through the Student Family Occupation (SFO) index. To be eligible for SFO funding, a school campus SFO index must be greater than the statewide median SFO index. Funding for the SFO is targeted at those schools with students whose readiness to learn is affected by a range of circumstances, including prior educational experiences and family or other personal circumstances. The SFO was introduced in the 2005 SRP, based on findings from the University of Melbourne along with other key changes, in response to the need to better allocate equity resources. The SFO marker is constructed using parental occupation data that is submitted annually and weighted according to categorisation of occupations as per the Australian Bureau of Statistics. The University of Melbourne’s key findings found that student outcomes are directly correlated with disadvantage and disadvantage is concentrated in certain schools. SFO, at present, is the best predictor of educational outcomes.

Funding is provided to schools with the greatest densities of students from low socio-economic backgrounds, recognising their additional learning needs. Consequently, SFO funding supports programs that focus on students at risk of not achieving success at school with particular emphasis on students with literacy problems. Victoria will allocate its contribution to non-government schools through the Financial Assistance Model (FAM).

How will students be supported by the payment?
The Victorian Government will continue to support students from low-income families by distributing $34.5 million directly to the neediest government schools, in place of the EMA payment. Funding will be used by schools to support students for school-based expenses previously covered by the EMA. These include educational items such as textbooks, stationery, uniforms and excursions.

How will schools ensure the money is used for those students who previously attracted the EMA?
School principals and councils will be responsible for ensuring that students, who previously attracted the EMA, are supported to participate fully at school. Schools have complete flexibility, within their annual budgets, to address the specific needs of their students, and provide additional support, as required.

While this new approach will see a change in the way the previous EMA funding is allocated, it is still expected that all schools will provide the support required for their students from disadvantaged backgrounds. Further information about the changes will be published on the Department’s website until 31 December at: http://www.education.vic.gov.au/school/parents/financial/Pages/ema.aspx.

From the start of 2015, parents can direct their questions about the new funding arrangements to their child’s school.

How will schools in higher socio economic areas support children who previously attracted the EMA?
Schools have complete flexibility within their annual budgets to address the specific needs of their students, and provide additional support as required.

The Department’s Financial Policy and Guidelines for Schools is available at

Access to State Schools Relief Committee support is available via the principal to assist with clothing/uniforms for families in financial hardship. The Commonwealth Government is primarily responsible for the provision of financial assistance to low income families through the SchoolKids Bonus, which is provided directly to eligible parents to assist with education costs. More information is available at SchoolKids Bonus.

What support will be available to schools that don’t receive additional funding, to assist low income families?
The Department’s Financial Policy and Guidelines for Schools is available at School councils have the responsibility to develop policies and plans to allocate their overall resources in accordance with the goals, targets and strategies outlined in their strategic plan. This includes the allocation of funding provided under the SRP, any other funding provided by the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development, and locally-raised funds. Access to State Schools Relief Committee support is available via the principal to assist with clothing/uniforms for families in financial hardship. The Commonwealth Government provides financial assistance to low income families through SchoolKids Bonus.

How will families be informed about the changes?
Information for parents will also be published on the Department’s website:

A letter from the School Council President to parents has been included as part of the 2015 Indicative SRP circular.
