

1BM ESSENTIAL AGREEMENT

In our class we will be OPEN-MINDED when we listen to other people, we will be THINKERS and think before speaking. We will show RESPECT to our friends and other people.

We will be KNOWLEDGEABLE students and learn to have more knowledge. We will be REFLECTIVE in our work and choices.

In our class we will be RISK-TAKERS who demonstrate COMMITMENT by always doing our best and showing INDEPENDENCE with our work by being responsible.

We will be CARING by looking after each other, showing RESPECT to everyone and establishing TOLERANCE when we work and play together.

In our class we are INQUIRERS that display CURIOSITY with our learning. We will be CONFIDENT people who are CREATIVE with our work.

We will work together using COOPERATION and show EMPATHY when someone is sad.

In our class we will be PRINCIPLED by doing the right thing, being good COMMUNICATORS that show appreciation for everyone and everything.

2MB will work towards showing all of the PYP attitudes and the Learner Profile attributes.

NEGATIVE CONSEQUENCES

If we do not follow the Essential Agreement there will be consequences for our actions:

- You will be given a warning and need to move your peg down on the 'Learning Choices' chart.
- May be asked to remove yourself to Mrs Meehan's room (next door) to think about choices made.
  - If needed, stay in for part of recess/lunch.
  - If you continue to make poor choices parents will be contacted.

POSITIVE CONSEQUENCES

If we follow the Essential Agreement there will be consequences for our actions:

- You will be asked to move your peg up on the behaviour chart.
- Celebrate our success as a class when we follow the Essential Agreement, by recognition and games.
