

We show empathy by being honest and caring. This is by being helpful and being kind to others.

In 5SL, we are risk-takers by trying new things. We can take risks when working in groups or individually. We take risks by being confident and putting our hands up.

Our class shows confidence by trying new things, taking risks and not being shy. You can be brave and try to reach our goals.

In our class we are open-minded by knowing that it is okay to be different, thinking outside of the box and thinking about others' opinions. We understand that everyone is different and we don't judge others.

We show co-operation by working together, joining in and showing teamwork. We help each other out. 5SL shares ideas and listens to everyone's point of view.

We show creativity by thinking of our own ideas, we do this by using our imagination and expressing our emotions.
We show we are principled by being honest and always doing the right thing without being told.

We are balanced by being able to multitask. Students in 5SL use their time wisely. We can juggle extra curricular activities and school work.

Our class shows respect by being kind to peers, teachers and parents. We can do this by not talking when someone else is.
