As learners we are going to show enthusiasm and commitment to our learning.
We will also show respect by always using our manners. When completing our work we will be creative!
As learners we are going to be risk-takers and give everything a go!
We are going to be caring to each other by playing nicely when in the playground.